

Trace the Trail II • Columbia River Paddle

Saturday, September 23rd, 2006

8:00am - 4:00pm

Plymouth, WA to Hat Rock State Park, OR

Sponsored by the City of Umatilla & the Northwest Discovery Water Trail

Paddlers and rowers are invited to make a ten mile trip from Plymouth Park in Washington to Hat Rock State Park in Oregon. Participants will gain 75 feet of elevation in the McNary Dam shipping lock and paddle past basalt canyon walls home to cliff swallows, raptors, and unique vegetation. The event is free, participants must supply their own seaworthy boat and appropriate gear. This trip will require intermediate skills. A vehicle shuttle will be provided for participants.

If conditions are unsafe, the trip may be modified or canceled.

To register or for more information, visit:

www.ndwt.org

or contact Sarah Krueger, Washington Water Trails Association, sarah@wwta.org or 206.545.9161